INTRODUCTION

The following narrative and accompanying tables provide information on the characteristics of the Youth Authority's institution, camp and parole populations as of June 30 of each year, 1995 through 2004. The statistics reflect both CYA cases directly committed to the Youth Authority and Department of Corrections (CDC) cases housed in Youth Authority facilities pursuant to Section 1731.5(c) of the Welfare and Institutions Code. Under this section, which became effective January 1984, youth committed to the Department of Corrections can be ordered by the sentencing courts to be placed in Youth Authority facilities to serve at least part of their sentences.

The characteristics compared include sex, committing court, county of commitment, admission status, ethnicity, average age, and the following categories of primary commitment offense:

Violent Offenses:	Homicide, robbery, all types of assaults, forcible rape, and kidnapping.
Property Offenses:	Burglary, theft (including auto), forgery and check offenses, and arson.
Narcotic and Drug Offenses:	All offenses related to narcotics and dangerous drugs.
Other Offenses:	All offenses not specified above.

Tables are provided for the total population in the camps and for each of the ten regular institutions. Reception Center-Clinics are not identified separately, but are included in the overall totals, Tables 1 through 3.

Please note: Table 7, Karl Holton Youth Correctional Drug and Alcohol Treatment Facility moved wards out gradually until the last wards left on September 25, 2003. Fred C. Nelles Youth Correctional Facility and Mt. Bullion Youth Conservation Camp gradually moved wards out until the end of May 2004. All of the males were moved out of the Ventura Youth Correctional Facility by January 1, 2004. This explains the drastic drop in their populations.

Also, Table 7, El Paso De Robles Youth Correctional Facility averages 40 contract cases from Monterey that are not included in this report.

SUMMARY

POPULATION

The institution population of 4,067 in 2004 reflects a decrease of 19 percent from the 2003 population of 5,024. This continues the downward trend beginning in 1997. Since the high of 10,122 in 1996, the institution population has decreased 60 percent.

The parole population of 4,126 in 2004 is 1 percent lower than in 2003, and 35 percent lower than its high in 1997.

SEX

Over the ten-year period, female offenders have been 3 to 5 percent of the institution population. Females have been 4 to 6 percent of the parole population until 2003 when the population increased to 7 percent. The percentage of females in the parole population has remained at 7 percent for 2004.

COURT OF COMMITMENT

Since 1995, the percentage of juvenile court commitments in the Youth Authority population has increased considerably -- from 79 percent in 1995 to 97 percent in 2003 and 2004.

Similarly, the percentage of juvenile court commitments on parole has steadily increased from 77 percent in 1995 to almost 97 percent in 2004.

COUNTY OF COMMITMENT

The largest proportion of the Youth Authority's institution population has consistently been from Southern California (especially Los Angeles County), until this year when the proportion has decreased from 56 percent in 1995 to 48 percent. Los Angeles County commitments have decreased from 36 percent to 25 percent during that same time period.

The difference between the major sections of the State has been less marked for the parole population. In 2004, the comparison is 52 percent for Southern California, and 47 percent for Northern California.

PRIMARY COMMITMENT OFFENSE

The proportion of offenders institutionalized primarily for homicide, robbery, and other violent offenses steadily decreased from a high of 65 percent in 1995 to 59 percent by 2004. The proportion of offenders on parole for violent offenses has steadily increased from 59 percent in 1995 to 70 percent in 2002. In 2004, the percentage decreased slightly to 68 percent.

Those offenders institutionalized primarily for property offenses (burglary, theft, and arson) gradually increased from 23 percent in 1995 to 25 percent in 2002. In 2004, the percentage decreased back to 22. The proportion of property offenders on parole has decreased from 27 to 22 percent.

The proportion of the institution population committed primarily for narcotic and drug offenses decreased from 6 percent in 1995 to 3 percent in 2004. Those on parole who had been committed primarily for narcotic and drug offenses decreased from 8 percent in 1995 to 3 percent in 2002. It remains at 3 percent for 2004.

ADMISSION STATUS

The proportion of first commitments in the institution population has fluctuated between 82 and 85 percent.

The proportion of first-time parolees in the parole population was 78 percent in 1995, and is currently 74 percent.

ETHNIC GROUP

The percentage of Whites in the institutions in 2004 is back up to 16 percent after dipping as low as 14 percent in the middle of the decade. The percentage of African Americans in the institutions dropped, from 32 percent in 1995 to a low of 28 percent in 1999. In 2004, the percentage was 29 percent. There has been more of an upward trend in the proportion of Hispanics, from 44 percent in 1995 to a high of 50 percent in 2004. The percentage of Asians has decreased from 6 percent in 1995 to 3 percent in 2004.

The proportion of Whites in the parole population dropped from 16 percent in 1995 to 15 percent in 2004, and African Americans from 30 percent in 1995 to 25 percent in 2004. The proportion of Hispanics increased from 44 percent in 1995 to 51 percent in 2004. The Asian parole population increased from 6 percent in 1995 to 7 percent in 2004.

AVERAGE AGE

Over the past ten years, 19 years has consistently been the average age of the institution population. The average age of the parole population has been approximately 21 years during the same time period. Although, both have been incrementally increasing.
